KNOW YOUR RIGHTS WHEN INTERACTING WITH ICE

WHEN ICE IS AT YOUR HOME:

- Stay calm and do not run away.
- Do not open the door. Ask if the officers have a warrant signed by a judge.
 - If they say yes, ask to see the judge's signature. (An "administrative warrant of removal," or ICE warrant, does not give ICE authority to go inside.)
 - If ICE does not have a warrant signed by a judge, say, "I do not give you permission to enter."
- If ICE enters by force, do not interfere or resist.
- If it is safe to do so, take notes about officers' names, badge numbers, what they take, or who they arrest. You have the right to record officers as long as you don't interfere with their activity.

REDUCE YOUR RISK: Stay calm. Do not run, resist, or obstruct officers. Do not lie or give false documents. Keep your hands visible.

WHEN ASKED ABOUT YOUR IMMIGRATION STATUS:

- You have the right to remain silent and do not have to answer questions. Anything you say can be used against you in court.
- If you are not a U.S. citizen and immigration agents request papers, you must show them if you have them with you.
- If an immigration agent asks if they can search you, you have the right to say no. They may only search with your consent or probable cause. If they try to search you without your permission, do not resist.
- If you're over 18, carry your papers with you at all times. If you don't have them, tell the officer you want to remain silent, or you want to consult a lawyer before answering questions.

IF YOU'RE DETAINED WHILE YOUR CASE IS UNDERWAY:

- You have the right to call a lawyer or your family if you are detained, and you have the right to be visited by a lawyer.
- You have the right to have your attorney with you at any hearing before an immigration judge.

IF ICE ARRESTS YOU:

- Say you wish to remain silent and ask for a lawyer. You do not have to answer questions about where you were born, citizenship, or how you entered the country.
- You have the right to contact your consulate or have ICE inform them of your detention.
- You have the right to consult with a lawyer, but do not have the right to a free government-appointed lawyer if you cannot afford one. You may ask for a list of free or low-cost alternatives.

IF YOU NEED TO CHALLENGE A DEPORTATION ORDER:

- You have the right to a hearing to challenge a deportation order, unless you waive your right to a hearing by signing something called a "Stipulated Removal Order," or take "voluntary departure."
- You have the right to an attorney, but not a free one. Ask for list of free or low-cost lawyers. If you have no lawyer, ask the court to allow time to find one.

IF ICE APPROACHES YOU AT WORK:

- Stay calm and do not run.
- Ask if you are free to leave or go back to work. If yes, tell them you will not speak to them and resume working or calmly leave.
- You have the right to remain silent. You do not have to answer any questions, such as if you are a citizen, have documents, or where you were born. If you wish to remain silent, say "I'm asserting my right to remain silent." Repeat as needed.
- If you have valid immigration papers, you should show them if asked. Never lie or provide fake papers.
- If officers tell you to line up with others based on your immigration status, you have the right to stay where you are or move to a safe place. You can tell officers you are invoking your right to remain silent. If forced to move, do not resist.
- If officers ask to search you, your property (like your cell phone or backpack), or your workspace, you have the right to say, "No, I do not consent to a search." If they attempt to search your belongings without your consent, do not resist.
