The overstay was processed as such and was picked up earlier tonight by ERO with no issues. This was an overstay (female) from China, having entered in 2015 as a B1/B2. Nothing notable to pass on other than that.

Thanks.

(b) (6), (b) (7)(C) if there are enough (b) (7)(E) agents, there is a bus that leaves Greyhound (Dysarts) at 5:20. However, the (b) (7)(E) said that sometimes it doesn't come up if there weren't any tickets sold. So if you could track down a number, it might be worth calling ahead. I'll be in at 0600 if something comes up.

It has been some time now, but we are finally getting operations back in line as we used to. We are conducting a (b) (7)(E) on Saturday, but if the weather inhibits that we are planning on conducting trans-check operations in Bangor on that day instead. If we run into a situation that warrants a search (b) (7)(E) I suppose, would there be anyone available at your location to assist? These trans-checks (b) (7)(E) (b) (7)(E) and I will make sure that you are looped in as we plan on being down there.

[REDACTED] spoke with the CPA today and addressed his concerns to his satisfaction.

- Bangor is not a sanctuary city (actually there are none in Maine, I am surprised to learn that)
- We have tons of intel from BPD, most all drug related though
- The SIU has been outstanding at gathering intel through a variety of source agencies
- I did reach out to CMB, if they have the man power they will assist

We are all set to begin these ops. It actually looks like we will be able to run the CP on Saturday, but the bus check is in our hip pocket if need be.

Whoops, I have a scheduling snafu on my email below as the Chief and I will be out of the office on Monday and Tuesday. So let's make it at 0900 on Wednesday next week.

Here are his questions that he would like to discuss:

- Bangor – Sanctuary City? (They were working on it)
- Bangor PD for intel
- Other OA intel sources
- Include CMB?

SBPAs,

We are all set to begin bus checks in Bangor. I have spoken with the Chief of Bangor PD, and they are happy to respond as needed should we encounter something that does not fall within our purview. OFO Bangor is also happy to assist should we need to roll someone. They are available 24/7 at the airport.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Remain professional, expect to be videoed, and do not get baited into an argument that will get edited to make us look like fools. Don't confuse this with taking shit. We are there to do a job, then move on.

This is an excellent opportunity, the likes of which we have not seen in a decade. Let's work together to be as productive as possible while preserving this momentum to increase our ability to enforce the law.

[REDACTED] and I met with the CPA this morning. He had a couple of valid concerns, but I am certain that he is happy to see us moving forward, using this operation as an enforcement tool as much as it is a measure of our line operations effectiveness.

Happy hunting, stay safe, and have fun!

Thanks,

Do you have any idea if Penobscot Pulse will be a go by Saturday? It looks like at this point there is a 50/50 chance that the road may be wet or icy on Saturday, leaving the bus check op as the back-up plan.
