Re: FOIA Appeal
Request 2017-HQFO-01317
American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Vermont, the American Civil Liberties Union of New Hampshire Foundation, and the American Civil Liberties Union of Maine Foundation

To whom it may concern:

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6) and 6 C.F.R. § 5.8(a)(1), this letter appeals the September 27, 2017, response of U.S. Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) to Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”) request No. 2017-HQFO-01317. Copies of the original request and related correspondence are attached to this letter. As required by 6 C.F.R. § 5.8(a)(1), this appeal is postmarked within 90 working days of DHS’s response and is therefore timely.

The American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Vermont, the American Civil Liberties Union of New Hampshire Foundation, and the American Civil Liberties Union of Maine Foundation (collectively, “Requesters”) submitted the FOIA request on September 5, 2017, via electronic mail. See Ex. A (“FOIA Request”). This FOIA Request sought records from January 1, 2017, up to such time as an adequate search is performed, pertaining to DHS and its components’ immigration enforcement actions in the states of Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine including, in summary: (1) records, including but not limited to data and statistics, relating to any immigration enforcement action in the three states; (2) communications with any of state or local law enforcement agency relating to immigration enforcement; (3) communications with any state or local government official relating to immigration enforcement or certain specified terms; (4) communications relating to immigration enforcement with businesses or business owners; and (5) records related to the processing of the FOIA Request. Please see the attached FOIA Request for a detailed description of the requested records. See Ex. A, at p. 8.

On September 15, 2017, Requesters received by email a letter from the DHS FOIA office acknowledging receipt of the Request, denying the request for expedited treatment, conditionally granting the request for a fee waiver, invoking the statutory ten-day extension for unusual circumstances in 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(c), indicating that items 2-5 of the Request had been transferred to Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”), and stating that the appropriate component(s) of DHS had been queried with respect to item 1. See Ex. B.

On September 27, 2017, Requesters received a notice purporting to be a “final response” from DHS via email stating that a search of the Office of Policy (PLCY) Office of Immigration Statistics resulted in one page of responsive records, which was produced without exemption or redaction. See Ex. C. Requesters appeal DHS’s response as inadequate because DHS has failed to meet its burden to show that it fully responded to the request or adequately searched for responsive documents. See 6 C.F.R. § 5.8(a)(1).

The FOIA Request contained five separate parts. As noted above, DHS indicated that it had transferred parts 2-5 of our Request to ICE. DHS gave no explanation for its apparent determination that all responsive documents would be in ICE’s possession alone. At minimum, responsive records are almost certainly within the possession of Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”), particularly but not exclusively as it relates to item 2 of the Request. In addition, DHS failed to produce the records created in fulfilling this request, including any correspondence with ICE or the Office of Immigration Statistics.

DHS also failed to demonstrate that it conducted an adequate search in response to the one item in the FOIA Request to which it did respond. “An agency fulfills its obligations under FOIA if it can demonstrate beyond material doubt that its search was reasonably calculated to uncover all relevant documents.” Valencia-Lucena v. Coast Guard, 180 F.3d 321, 325 (D.C. Cir. 1999) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted). “[T]he issue to be resolved is not whether there might exist any other documents possibly responsive to the request, but rather whether the search for those documents was adequate.” 21 F. Supp. 3d 60, 70 (D.D.C. 2014) (quoting Weisberg v. Dep’t of Justice, 745 F.2d 1476, 1485 (D.C. Cir. 1984)). An “agency cannot limit its search to only one record system if there are others that are likely to turn up the information requested.” Oglesby v. U.S. Dep’t of Army, 920 F.2d 57, 68 (D.C. Cir. 1990).

DHS searched only within the Office of Immigration Statistics and produced a single page of statistics, despite the fact that the Request for records relating to any immigration enforcement action in Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine made clear that it was “not limited to data or statistics.” DHS has not discharged its obligation to “demonstrate beyond material doubt that its search was reasonably calculated to uncover all relevant documents.” Valencia-Lucena, 180 F.3d at 325. Its search was plainly inadequate; indeed, the one record DHS did produce reflects dozens of immigration enforcement actions in these states since January 1, 2017, yet DHS produced no records whatsoever related to these actions.

In addition, although there have been multiple reports of DHS officials boarding commercial buses to conduct immigration checks, DHS produced no records whatsoever reflecting those activities. And we know from a recent report by the Vermont Department of Public Safety that DHS components made multiple requests in 2017 to query the automated license plate reader (“ALPR”) system in Vermont alone, but, again, DHS produced no records reflecting those activities. These records plainly fall within the request for records relating to any immigration enforcement action, but Item 1 of the Request specifically requested records related to bus boardings and requests for ALPR data.

DHS must reevaluate what offices, databases, and files it chose to search, conduct a thorough search within each office, and disclose responsive records it subsequently finds.

Requesters respectfully request that DHS conduct an adequate search and disclose all responsive records in an expeditious manner. In the event that DHS reaches an adverse determination regarding the FOIA Request or this appeal, Requesters request a complete list of documents covered by the FOIA Request and a specific indication of and a justification of any records withheld.

Requesters expect a response to this appeal within 20 working days, as required by 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(ii).

Please contact Lia Ernst, by email at lernst@acluvt.org or phone at (802) 223-6304, on behalf of Requesters if you require any further information or if you have any questions related to this matter.

Re: Freedom of Information Act Request / Expedited Processing Requested

To Whom This May Concern:

This letter is a request for records (“Request”) made pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”), 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq., and the relevant implementing regulations, see 6 C.F.R. § 5 et seq. (Department of Homeland Security, Disclosure of Records and Information). The Request is submitted by the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Vermont, the American Civil Liberties Union of New Hampshire Foundation, and the American Civil Liberties Union of Maine Foundation (collectively, “Requesters”).

Requesters seek the disclosure of records related to U.S Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) and U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”) enforcement operations in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine.

BACKGROUND

In the lead-up to and early days of the Trump administration, immigration enforcement in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine has been the subject of intense public interest.

A. Vermont

Just days into the Trump administration, Vermont’s attorney general announced the creation of an immigration task force to help address the anxiety and fear Vermonters were experiencing in the face of the administration’s immigration enforcement agenda. One month later, Vermont’s governor unveiled a bill aimed at limiting local law enforcement involvement in enforcing federal immigration law; the bill garnered tri-partisan support, was passed unanimously by the Senate and overwhelmingly by the House, and was signed into law in March. In May, the Governor signed into law a bill requiring all Vermont law enforcement agencies to adopt a revised Fair and Impartial Policing policy that, without conflicting with federal law, strengthens existing limitations on their involvement in immigration enforcement.

The law mandating the creation of a Fair and Impartial Policing policy was originally passed in 2014 in response to Vermont law enforcement agency collaboration with federal immigration authorities by alerting them to individuals suspected of being in the United States without authorization. In 2013, Vermont adopted a law allowing all people to obtain drivers’ privilege cards without regard to immigration status. Records obtained pursuant to public records requests demonstrated that Vermont Department of Motor Vehicles (“DMV”) investigators were in regular communication with ICE agents about individuals who applied for these cards—in some cases even setting up meetings under false pretenses so that ICE agents could arrest suspected unauthorized immigrants. Indeed, this very conduct was the genesis of a settlement entered into by the Vermont Human Rights Commission (“HRC”), the DMV, and ACLU-VT client Abd Rababah last summer after an HRC investigation found reasonable grounds to believe that the DMV had discriminated against Mr. Rababah.

See 23 V.S.A. § 603(e).

See, e.g., Elizabeth Hewitt, DMV Accused of Discrimination in Jordanian Deportation Case, VTDIGGER, Dec. 21, 2015, available at https://vtdigger.org/2015/12/21/dmv-discrimination-claimed-against-Although this settlement required the DMV to adopt strict limitations on when and why its investigators would contact federal immigration authorities, records show that the DMV investigators continued to collaborate with ICE in apparent violation of those limitations, earning the ire of the legislators who passed the drivers privilege card law.\footnote{Paul Heintz, \textit{Vermont DMV, State Police Play Nice With ICE}, \textit{SEVEN DAYS}, Apr. 5, 2017, available at \url{http://www.sevendaysvt.com/OffMessage/archives/2016/08/30/dmv-settles-jordanian-nationals-discrimination-complaint}.}

from the Vermont State House in Montpelier to the Ben & Jerry’s factory in Waterbury, calling on the company to follow through on its two-year-old commitment to join the Milk with Dignity program.\(^3\) Two active Migrant Justice members were arrested that night after they were stopped by CBP on their way home from participating in the march.\(^4\)

B. New Hampshire

U.S. immigration officials arrested more than 41,000 suspected undocumented individuals during the first 100 days of the Donald Trump presidency, an increase of nearly 38 percent over the same period the previous year. New Hampshire and the other 5 New England states actually experienced a larger percentage increase during the benchmark period; 610 were detained, up 58 percent from the same period the previous year. This dramatic increase has caused a high level of anxiety in New Hampshire’s immigrant communities.\(^5\)

These enforcement actions have had a real impact on families. In June 2017, a Mexican restaurant in New Boston was raided by ICE, including some of the restaurant’s staff cooks and waiters.\(^6\) And in February 2017, the Strafford County Jail, which houses immigration detainees, had an average of 106 immigration detainees each day, a 25 percent increase over the previous month.\(^7\)

In response, several Granite State churches and community groups are starting to organize a response to increased enforcement efforts by ICE. And in June 2017, religious leaders in the state hosted an interfaith prayer vigil in front of the Norris Cotton Federal Building in Manchester to show support for immigrant families who are facing the threat of deportation.

C. Maine

Since the inauguration of the Trump administration, Maine has seen an unprecedented increase in aggressive actions taken by government officials towards immigrants who reside in our state. Most notably, ICE officers detained Abdi Ali, a Somali asylum seeker, inside a Portland courthouse while he met privately with his court-appointed lawyer regarding a charge of operating under the influence. The arrest was the first of its kind in Maine and has prompted an outpouring of criticism from Maine’s legal community. Maine Attorney General Janet Mills spoke out publicly against the ICE action, and addressed a letter to Homeland Security and the U.S. Attorney warning that such actions would “have an unnecessary chilling effect on our efforts to obtain the cooperation of victims and our successful prosecution of crimes.” Mills further emphasized the need to avoid such a chilling effect, because “[i]n investigating matters of human trafficking, domestic violence and the like, it is critical to us that all individuals have free and open access to Maine courts, regardless of their immigration status.” Additionally, the ACLU of Maine was joined by 179 lawyers from a range of practice areas across the Maine Bar in addressing a letter to U.S. Attorney General Jeff Sessions and Homeland Security Secretary John Kelly to express the contempt felt towards ICE’s actions and demand that courthouses be treated as “sensitive locations” where ICE enforcement should be avoided, and emphasizing the “fundamental constitutional guarantee that all people have the right to seek redress from our system” regardless of immigration status.23

Following this incident, ICE detained Otto Morales-Caballeros, a Naples, Maine, resident who has lived in the United States for approximately 20 years. Morales-Caballeros, who was born in Guatemala, was detained “as part of the Trump administration’s move to tighten immigration enforcement.”24 Morales-Caballeros was detained while on his way to work, and subsequently held at four different locations in less than three months while waiting to find out if he would be deported.25 Since being deported to Guatemala, a country that Morales-Caballeros says feels foreign to him after twenty years in the United States, the press has continued to cover his case and fear and anxiety continue to cripple immigrants throughout Maine’s communities.26

Such fear and anxiety is well warranted following these two arrests in Maine, and the overall impact of the Trump administration implementing broad and far-reaching initiatives for mass deportation. Nationwide, the largest increases in deportations have been among immigrants with no criminal records or minor non-violent offenses such as Ali and Morales-Caballeros.27 Meanwhile, these arrests and the Trump administration’s overarching theme of mass deportation has prompted anti-immigrant laws in Maine, fueling concerns about the safety and security of law-abiding immigrants in our communities. In May, state Senator Lawrence Lockman proposed LD366, a bill “compelling Maine cities to act as extensions of federal immigration authorities,” essentially requiring local law enforcement officers to act as immigration officers.28 The bill further proposed that any communities not cooperating, such as sanctuary cities, would lose state funds. The bill was voted down 77-59 by the House.

REQUESTERS

The American Civil Liberties Union Foundation (“ACLU”) is a 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) organization that provides legal representation free of charge to individuals and organizations in civil rights and civil liberties cases, educates the public about civil rights and civil liberties issues across the country, provides analyses of pending and proposed legislation, directly lobbies legislators, and mobilizes the ACLU’s members to lobby their legislators. The ACLU is dedicated to holding the government accountable to principles of due process and of the U.S. Constitution in general. The ACLU is a national, non-partisan organization of more than 1.6 million members, countless additional activists and supporters, and fifty-three affiliates nationwide. Requesters are the ACLU’s local affiliates based in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine, and have more than 7400, 8000, and 8000 members and supporters, respectively.

DEFINITIONS

“Records”—all records or communications preserved in electronic or written form, including but not limited to: text communications between phones or other electronic devices (including but not limited to communications sent via SMS or other text, Blackberry Messenger, iMessage, WhatsApp, Facebook, Signal, Gchat, Twitter direct message, or similar form of communication), including those sent through personal devices or accounts; e-mails (including those in personal accounts); images, video, and audio, including that recorded on cell phones; voicemail messages; social-media posts; minutes or notes of meetings and phone calls; faxes; documents; data; correspondence; letters; messages; notes; contracts or agreements; memoranda of understanding; files; forms, including but not limited to I-205 forms, I-213 forms, and I-247 or I-247-related forms; logs; records; guidance; guidelines; formal and informal presentations; evaluations; audits; investigations; reviews; studies; reports; critiques; analyses; internal memoranda; legal opinions; orders; directives; instructions; training materials; criteria; standards; specifications; rules; instructions; manuals; advisories; bulletins; alerts; updates; reports; protocols; procedures; policies; or other communications.

“DHS” includes any sub-agency within the Department of Homeland Security, including Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”), Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”), and U.S. Border Patrol.

RECORDS REQUESTED

Requesters seek disclosure of Records pertaining to DHS immigration enforcement actions in the state of Vermont from January 1, 2017, up to such time as an adequate search

29 Id.

30 Id.
for responsive Records has been conducted, including any such Records held by ICE, CBP, Border Patrol, or any other DHS component agencies, to include:

1. All Records, including but not limited to data or statistics, mentioning, referencing, relating to, or referring to any immigration enforcement action, including but not limited to any investigations, arrests, or detentions of any individual in the states of Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine by DHS or its sub-agencies; any requests for automated license plate reader data; any boarding by DHS officials of any commercial bus or other form of public transportation to perform immigration checks; and any roadblock or checkpoint established by DHS officials.

2. All communications with, to, or from any Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine state or local law enforcement agency—including but not limited to Departments of Motor Vehicles and Departments of Corrections—mentioning, referencing, or referring to immigration enforcement, or to the investigation, arrest, or detention of any individual, and all Records pertaining to any such communications.

3. All communications with, to, or from any Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine state or local government official mentioning, referencing, or referring to immigration enforcement, “sanctuary” policies, detainers, or “fair and impartial policing,” or to the investigation, arrest, or detention of any individual, and all Records pertaining to any such communications.

4. All communications relating to immigration enforcement with, to, or from any Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine businesses or business owners, including but not limited to dairy farms and other agricultural operations, and all Records pertaining to any such communications.

5. All records created, sent, received, referenced, and/or used in fulfilling and/or responding to any of the foregoing parts of this Request.

Please search for responsive records regardless of format, medium, or physical characteristics, and including electronic records.

FORMAT OF PRODUCTION

With respect to the form of production, see 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3)(B), we request that responsive documents be provided electronically in native format (i.e. Excel spreadsheets in Excel). We request that any responsive documents for which native format production is impossible be provided electronically in text-searchable, static-image format (PDF), in the best image quality in the agencies’ possession. Please provide the requested documents in the following format:

- Saved on a CD, CD-ROM, or DVD;
- Each record in a separately saved file;
- Emails should include date and time stamps and author and recipient information, including BCC and any other hidden fields, and “parent-child” relationships should be maintained, meaning that the requester must be able to identify the attachments with emails;

- With any other metadata preserved.

REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED PROCESSING

Requesters seek Track 1 expedited processing for this FOIA request pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(i) (“Each agency shall promulgate regulations, pursuant to notice and receipt of public comment, providing for expedited processing of requests for records—(I) in cases in which the person requesting the records demonstrates a compelling need . . . .”). A “compelling need” exists when, “with respect to a request made by a person primarily engaged in disseminating information,” there is “urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal Government activity.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(v)(II); 6 C.F.R. § 5-5 (d)(1)(ii).

Dissemination of information to the public about actual or alleged government activity is a critical and substantial component of the ACLU’s mission and work. Specifically, the ACLU publishes a continuously updated blog, newsletters, news briefings, “Know Your Rights” documents, and other educational and informational materials that are broadly disseminated to the public.\(^{31}\) Such material is widely available to everyone, including individuals, tax-exempt organizations, not-for-profit groups, law students, and faculty, for no cost or for a nominal fee through the ACLU’s public education department and website.

The ACLU’s national website (www.aclu.org) and the sites run by the Requester affiliates (www.acluvt.org, https://www.aclumaine.org/, https://www.aclu-nh.org/) address civil rights and civil liberties issues in depth, provide features on civil rights and civil liberties issues in the news, and contain many thousands of documents relating to the issues on which the ACLU is focused. These websites also include features highlighting information obtained through the FOIA process.\(^{32}\)

\(^{31}\) See, e.g., Dan Gillmor, In Praise of the Almost-Journalists, SLATE, Mar. 28, 2014, available at http://slate.me/1jg5YXx (describing ACLU’s efforts to broadly disseminate important civil-rights-related news stories).

In addition, the ACLU publishes a magazine at least twice a year that reports on and analyzes civil liberties-related current events; this publication is distributed to more than one million people. The ACLU also disseminates electronic civil liberties bulletins to more than 1.6 million subscribers (both ACLU members and non-members) by e-mail. Both of these newsletters often include descriptions and analyses of information obtained from the government through FOIA, as well as information about cases, governmental policies, pending legislation, abuses of constitutional rights, and polling data. Cf. Elec. Privacy Info. Ctr. v. Dep't of Defense, 241 F. Supp. 2d 5, 13–14 (D.D.C. 2003) (finding the Electronic Privacy Information Center to be a representative of the news media under Department of Defense regulations because it published a “bi-weekly electronic newsletter that is distributed to over 15,000 readers” about “court cases and legal challenges, government policies, legislation, civil rights, surveys and polls, legislation, privacy abuses, international issues, and trends and technological advancements”).

The ACLU also regularly publishes books, “Know Your Rights” publications, fact sheets, and educational brochures and pamphlets designed to educate the public about civil liberties issues and governmental policies that implicate civil rights and liberties. These materials are specifically designed to be educational and widely disseminated to the public. See Elec. Privacy Info. Ctr., 241 F. Supp. 2d at 11 (finding the Electronic Privacy Information Center to be a news-media requester because of its publication and distribution of seven books on privacy, technology, and civil liberties). The ACLU further disseminates information to the public via social media platforms such as Facebook and Twitter.

Depending on the results of this request, Requesters plan to disseminate the information they receive to the public through these kinds of publications in these kinds of channels. The ACLU is therefore an organization “primarily engaged in disseminating information” within the meaning of the statute and the relevant regulations—as has been previously recognized in FOIA litigation between the ACLU and the Department of Justice. See, e.g., ACLU v. Dep't of Justice, 321 F. Supp. 2d 24, 30 n.5 (D.D.C. 2004) (finding that a non-profit, public-interest group that “gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses its editorial skills to turn the raw material into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience” is “primarily engaged in disseminating information” (internal citation omitted)).

There is no question that ICE immigration enforcement actions constitute federal government activity, and there is an urgent need for public transparency and information about how ICE is carrying out its activities in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine. Without expedited disclosure of the requested records, ICE and other DHS sub-agencies may continue to undertake enforcement actions targeting individuals, including labor organizers, in these states based on their political beliefs and activities and collaborate with local law enforcement agencies or other state or local entities in unconstitutional seizures—all without Requesters being able to inform the public about these violations. As demonstrated by the many press reports cited above, ICE’s enforcement actions and collaboration with law enforcement agencies in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine are matters of critical importance and current exigency to residents of those states. Additional evidence of the intense public interest in these immigration enforcement actions comes from the many hundreds of people who have attended marches, rallies, and vigils in support of those detained by ICE and against ICE’s tactics. People are extremely anxious and fearful of DHS immigration enforcement activity in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine, and they—and their elected officials—have an urgent need to understand how that activity is being carried out and whether and how local law enforcement agencies have participated in it. There is thus a “compelling need” for the requested records.

For all of the foregoing reasons, expedited processing of this Request is warranted and should be granted.

Requesters hereby certify that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of their knowledge and belief. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(vi); 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(d)(3).

33 See supra nn. 1-30.

REQUEST FOR A WAIVER OR LIMITATION OF SEARCH AND REVIEW FEES

Requesters further seek a waiver of processing (search and review) fees because disclosure of these records is in the public interest and because the ACLU qualifies as a “representative of the news media.” See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) (“Documents shall be furnished without any charge or at a charge reduced below the fees established under clause (ii) if disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester.”); 6 C.F.R. § 5.11(d)(1) (search fees shall not be charged “for requests by educational institutions . . . or representatives of the news media”); id. § 5.11(k)(1) (“Records responsive to a request will be furnished without charge or at a charge reduced below that established under paragraph (c) of this section where a component determines, based on all available information, that the requester has demonstrated that (i) disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government; and (ii) disclosure of the information is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester.”). As discussed below, federal agencies routinely grant such fee waivers for FOIA requests made by the ACLU for these reasons.

At a minimum, should a total fee waiver be denied, “fees should be limited to reasonable standard charges for document duplication” because the ACLU is a “representative of the news media” and the records are not sought for commercial use. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II).

A. Disclosure of the requested records is in the public interest and is not in Requesters’ commercial interest.

A fee waiver is appropriate if the records requested will contribute significantly to public understanding of the government’s operations or activities and the requested disclosure is not primarily in the Requesters’ commercial interest. Under 6 C.F.R. § 5.11(k)(2), the following factors are to be considered in determining whether a disclosure is in the public interest: (i) whether the subject of the requested records concerns “the operations or activities of the government”; (ii) whether the disclosure is “likely to contribute” to an understanding of government operations or activities; (iii) whether disclosure of the requested information will contribute to “public understanding,” that is, “the understanding of a reasonably broad audience of persons interested in the subject”; and (iv) whether disclosure is likely to contribute “significantly” to public understanding of government operations or activities. See 6 C.F.R. § 5.11(k)(2)(i)–(iv). To determine whether disclosure of the requested information is in the requester’s commercial interest, agencies consider: (i) whether the requester has a commercial interest that would be furthered by the requested disclosure; and (ii) whether the public interest is greater than any identified commercial interest in disclosure. All six of these considerations are satisfied here.

First, the records requested pertain directly to the operations and activities of the federal government (specifically, DHS and its sub-agencies, including ICE, CBP, and Border Patrol).

Second, this Request is “likely to contribute” to an understanding of government operations or activities, specifically by helping the public determine the nature and extent of DHS immigration enforcement actions in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine; local law enforcement participation in those actions; and whether those actions are undertaken in a manner that comports with the U.S. Constitution and other federal laws. To the extent that agencies of the federal government are engaged in an effort to suppress the free speech of persons and organizations who advocate for fair and safe working conditions in agricultural industries, such information will be of great interest to the public. Finally, this information is not already in the public domain.

Third, disclosure of the requested information will contribute to “the understanding of a reasonably broad audience of persons interested in the subject” of how DHS is conducting immigration enforcement actions in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine. Among other things, Requesters intend to publish responsive records and analyze specific documents to raise public awareness of DHS activities in those states. In addition, as representatives of the news media, Requesters are entitled to the presumption that this consideration is satisfied. § 5.11(k)(2)(iii).

Fourth, disclosure will contribute “significantly” to the public understanding of DHS activities in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine. As explained at length above, immigration enforcement activity in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine has garnered significant and sustained public and media attention, yet much remains unknown about this critical human rights issue. To Requesters’ knowledge, the requested records are not already in the public domain. Requesters will ensure that disclosure will contribute significantly to the public understanding of these issues by reviewing and analyzing the records, and, depending on what the records reveal, synthesizing the information therein to make their import readily understandable to the public and making both the documents and the analyses publicly available on their web sites. In so doing, Requesters will help the public understand the nature and extent of ICE immigration enforcement actions in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine, and whether those actions are undertaken in a manner that comports with the U.S. Constitution and other federal laws. To the extent that agencies of the federal government are engaged in an effort to suppress the free speech of persons and organizations who advocate for fair and safe working conditions in agricultural industries, such information will be of great interest to the public.

Requesters have thus established, “with reasonable specificity[,] that [their] request pertains to operations of the government,” and “the informative value of a request depends not on there being certainty of what the documents will reveal, but rather on the requesting party having explained with reasonable specificity how those documents would increase public knowledge of the functions of the government.” Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep’t of Health & Human Servs., 481 F. Supp. 2d 99, 107–109 (D.D.C. 2006).

Fifth, disclosure of the information requested is not in the Requesters’ commercial interest. 6 C.F.R. § 5.11(k)(3)(i)–(ii). Requesters are non-profit organizations, and any information obtained as a result of this FOIA request will be made available to the public at no cost. In addition, as representatives of the news media, Requesters are entitled to the presumption that this consideration is satisfied. § 5.11(b)(6) (“A request for records that supports the news-dissemination function of [a representative of the news media] shall not be considered to be for a commercial use.”).

35 See infra Part C.

36 See supra notes 1-30, 34 and accompanying text.

Finally, because the requested disclosure would not further any commercial interest of the Requesters, the disclosure is, by definition, not primarily in their commercial interest. In addition, because Requesters have satisfied the public interest standard and are representatives of the news media, Requesters are entitled to the presumption that this factor is satisfied. See 6 C.F.R. § 5.11(k)(3)(ii).

For all these reasons, the Requesters are entitled to a fee waiver under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) and 6 C.F.R. § 5.11(k).

B. Requesters qualify as representatives of the news media.

Requesters meet the statutory and regulatory definitions of a “representative of the news media” because each is an “entity that gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses its editorial skills to turn the raw materials into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) (“[F]ees shall be limited to reasonable standard charges for document duplication when records are not sought for commercial use and the request is made by . . . a representative of the news media”); id. § 522(a)(4)(A)(iii) (“Documents shall be furnished without any charge or at a charge reduced below the fees established under clause (ii) if disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester.”); 6 C.F.R. § 5.11(d)(1) (search fees shall not be charged “for requests by . . . representatives of the news media”); see also, e.g., Nat’l Sec. Archive v. Dep’t of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381, 1387 (D.C. Cir. 1989).

The ACLU is a “representative of the news media” for the same reasons that it is “primarily engaged in the dissemination of information.” See Elec. Privacy Info. Ctr., 241 F. Supp. 2d at 10–15 (finding non-profit public interest group that disseminated an electronic newsletter and published books was a “representative of the news media” for FOIA purposes); ACLU v. Dep’t of Justice, 321 F. Supp. 2d 24, 30 n.5 (D.D.C. 2004) (finding non-profit public interest group to be “primarily engaged in disseminating information”).

37 See infra Part B.

38 On account of these factors, fees associated with responding to FOIA requests are regularly waived for the ACLU. In June 2011, the National Security Division of the Department of Justice granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with respect to a request for documents relating to the interpretation and implementation of a section of the PATRIOT Act. In October 2010, the Department of the Navy granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with respect to a request for documents regarding the deaths of detainees in U.S. custody. In January 2009, the CIA granted a fee waiver with respect to the same request. In March 2009, the State Department granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with regard to a FOIA request submitted in December 2008. The Department of Justice granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with regard to the same FOIA request. In November 2006, the Department of Health and Human Services granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with regard to a FOIA request submitted in November 2006. In May 2005, the U.S. Department of Commerce granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with respect to its request for information regarding the radio-frequency identification chips in United States passports. In March 2005, the Department of State

For the foregoing reasons, a fee waiver or limitation should be granted. A fee waiver would also fulfill Congress’s legislative intent in amending FOIA, namely to ensure that the Act is liberally construed in favor of granting waivers for noncommercial requesters and to effectuate disclosure of documents of public importance. See Judicial Watch Inc. v. Rossotti, 326 F.3d 1309, 1312 (D.C. Cir. 2003) (“Congress amended FOIA to ensure that it be liberally construed in favor of waivers for noncommercial requesters.” (internal quotation marks and citation omitted)); OPEN Government Act of 2007, Pub. L. No. 110–175, § 2, 121 Stat. 2524 (finding that “disclosure, not secrecy, is the dominant objective of the Act” (quoting Dep’t of Air Force v. Rose, 425 U.S. 352, 361 (1992))).

At a minimum, should a total waiver be denied, fees should be “limited to reasonable standard charges for document duplication” because the ACLU is a “representative of the news media” and the records are not sought for commercial use. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II). In the event a fee waiver or reduction of costs is denied, please notify us in advance if the anticipated costs associated with this Request exceed $100.00.

Pursuant to the applicable statute and regulations, we expect a determination regarding expedited processing within ten (10) calendar days. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(ii)(I); 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(d)(4).

We further expect your reply to the Request itself within twenty (20) business days, as required under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(i). If the Request is denied in whole or in part, we ask that you justify all withholdings by reference to specific exemptions to the FOIA. We also ask that you release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material.

We reserve the right to appeal a decision to withhold any information or to deny expedited processing or a waiver of fees.

granted a fee waiver to the ACLU with regard to a request regarding the use of immigration laws to exclude prominent non-citizen scholars and intellectuals from the country because of their political views, statements, or associations. In addition, the Department of Defense did not charge the ACLU fees associated with FOIA requests submitted by the ACLU in April 2007, June 2006, February 2006, and October 2003. The Department of Justice did not charge the ACLU fees associated with FOIA requests submitted by the ACLU in November 2007, December 2005, and December 2004. Finally, three separate agencies—the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review, and the Office of Information and Privacy in the Department of Justice—did not charge the ACLU fees associated with a FOIA request submitted by the ACLU in August 2002.

Re: 2017-HQFO-01317

Dear Ms. Ernst:

This letter acknowledges receipt of your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), dated September 05, 2017, and to your request for expedited handling and a waiver of all assessable FOIA fees. Our office received your request on September 05, 2017. Specifically, you requested records pertaining to DHS immigration enforcement actions in the state of Vermont from January 1, 2017, up to such time as an adequate search for responsive records has been conducted, including any such Records held by ICE, CBP, Border Patrol, or any other DHS component agencies, to include: 1. All Records, including but not limited to data or statistics, mentioning, referencing, relating to, or referring to any immigration enforcement action, including but not limited to any investigations, arrests, or detentions of any individual in the states of Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine by DHS or its sub-agencies; any requests for automated license plate reader data; any boarding by DHS officials of any commercial bus or other form of public transportation to perform immigration checks; and any roadblock or checkpoint established by DHS officials; 2. All communications with, to, or from any Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine state or local law enforcement agency—including but not limited to Departments of Motor Vehicles and Departments of Corrections—mentioning, referencing, or referring to immigration enforcement, or to the investigation, arrest, or detention of any individual, and all Records pertaining to any such communications; 3. All communications with, to, or from any Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine state or local government official mentioning, referencing, or referring to immigration enforcement, “sanctuary” policies, detainers, or “fair and impartial policing,” or to the investigation, arrest, or detention of any individual, and all Records pertaining to any such communications; 4. All communications relating to immigration enforcement with, to, or from any Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine businesses or business owners, including but not limited to dairy farms and other agricultural operations, and all Records pertaining to any such communications; 5. All records created, sent, received, referenced, and/or used in fulfilling and/or responding to any of the foregoing parts of this Request.
Your request for expedited treatment is hereby denied.

Under the DHS FOIA regulations, expedited processing of a FOIA request is warranted if the request involves “circumstances in which the lack of expedited treatment could reasonably be expected to pose an imminent threat to the life or physical safety of an individual,” 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.5(e)(1)(i); “an urgency to inform the public about an actual or alleged federal government activity, if made by a person who is primarily engaged in disseminating information,” 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.5(e)(1)(ii); “the loss of substantial due process rights,” 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.5(e)(1)(iii); or “a matter of widespread and exceptional media interest in which there exist possible questions about the government’s integrity which affect public confidence,” 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.5(e)(1)(iv).

Requesters seeking expedited processing must submit a statement explaining in detail the basis for the request, and that statement must be certified by the requester to be true and correct pursuant to 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.5(e)(3).

Your request for expedited processing is denied because you do not qualify under any category pursuant to 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.5(e)(1). You have not established that lack of expedited treatment in this case will pose an imminent threat to the life or physical safety of an individual. You have not established the loss of substantial due process rights. While you may be primarily engaged in the dissemination of information, you have not detailed with specificity why you feel there is an urgency to inform the public about the subject matter of the request. Qualifying urgency would need to exceed the public’s right to know about government activity generally. You also did not offer sufficient supporting evidence of an interest of the public greater than the public’s general interest in the subject matter of the request. Finally, you did not establish this is a matter of widespread and exceptional media interest in which there exist possible questions about the government’s integrity which affect public confidence. Your letter was conclusory in nature and did not present any facts to justify a grant of expedited processing under the applicable standards.

You have requested a fee waiver. The DHS FOIA regulations at 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.11(k) set forth six factors DHS must evaluate to determine whether the applicable legal standard for a fee waiver has been met: (1) Whether the subject of the requested records concerns “the operations or activities of the government,” (2) Whether the disclosure is “likely to contribute” to an understanding of government operations or activities, (3) Whether disclosure of the requested information will contribute to the understanding of the public at large, as opposed to the individual understanding of the requester or a narrow segment of interested persons, (4) Whether the contribution to public understanding of government operations or activities will be “significant,” (5) Whether the requester has a commercial interest that would be furthered by the requested disclosure, and (6) Whether the magnitude of any identified commercial interest to the requester is sufficiently large in comparison with the public interest in disclosure, that disclosure is primarily in the commercial interest of the requester.

Upon review of the subject matter of your request, and an evaluation of the six factors identified above, DHS has determined that it will conditionally grant your request for a fee waiver. The fee waiver determination will be based upon a sampling of the responsive documents received from the various DHS program offices as a result of the searches conducted in response to your FOIA request. DHS will, pursuant to DHS FOIA regulations applicable to non-commercial requesters, provide two hours of search time and process the first 100 pages at no charge to you. If upon review of these documents, DHS determines that the disclosure of the information contained in those documents does not meet the factors permitting DHS to waive the fees, then DHS will at that time either deny your request for a fee waiver entirely, or will allow for a percentage reduction in the amount of the fees corresponding to the amount of relevant material found that meets the factors allowing for a fee waiver. In either case, DHS will promptly notify you of its final decision regarding your request for a fee waiver and provide you with the responsive records as required by applicable law.

In the event that your fee waiver is denied, and you determine that you still want the records, provisions of the FOIA allow us to recover part of the cost of complying with your request. We shall charge you for records in accordance with the DHS FOIA regulations as they apply to non-commercial requesters. As a non-commercial requester you will be charged for any search time and duplication beyond the free two hours and 100 pages mentioned in the previous paragraph. You will be charged 10 cents per page for duplication and search time at the per quarter-hour rate ($4.00 for clerical personnel, $7.00 for professional personnel, $10.25 for managerial personnel) of the searcher. In the event that your fee waiver is denied, we will construe the submission of your request as an agreement to pay up to $25.00. This office will contact you before accruing any additional fees.

Due to the increasing number of FOIA requests received by this office, we may encounter some delay in processing your request. Consistent with 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.5(a) of the DHS FOIA regulations, the Department processes FOIA requests according to their order of receipt. Although DHS’ goal is to respond within 20 business days of receipt of your request, FOIA does permit a 10-day extension of this time period in certain circumstances under 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.5(c). As your request seeks documents that will require a thorough and wide-ranging search, DHS will invoke a 10-day extension for your request pursuant to 6 C.F.R. Part 5 § 5.5(c). If you would like to narrow the scope of your request, please contact our office. We will make every effort to comply with your request in a timely manner.

We have queried the appropriate component(s) of DHS for responsive records for item 1 of your request. If any responsive records are located, they will be reviewed for determination of releasability. Please be assured that one of the analysts in our office will respond to your request as expeditiously as possible. We appreciate your patience as we proceed with your request.

Our office transferred your request to ICE for items 2-5 of your request. Their contact information is:

Re: 2017-HQFO-01317

Dear Ms. Ernst:

This is the electronic final response to your September 5, 2017, Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) for records pertaining to DHS immigration enforcement actions in the state of Vermont from January 1, 2017, up to such time as an adequate search for responsive records has been conducted, including any such records held by ICE, CBP, Border Patrol, or any other DHS component agencies, to include: 1. All records, including but not limited to data or statistics, mentioning, referencing, relating to, or referring to any immigration enforcement action, including but not limited to any investigations, arrests, or detentions of any individual in the states of Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine by DHS or its sub-agencies; any requests for automated license plate reader data; any boarding by DHS officials of any commercial bus or other form of public transportation to perform immigration checks; and any roadblock or checkpoint established by DHS officials; 2. All communications with, to, or from any Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine state or local law enforcement agency including but not limited to Departments of Motor Vehicles and Departments of Corrections mentioning, referencing, or referring to immigration enforcement, or to the investigation, arrest, or detention of any individual, and all records pertaining to any such communications; 3. All communications with, to, or from any Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine state or local government official mentioning, referencing, or referring to immigration enforcement, “sanctuary” policies, detainers, or “fair and impartial policing,” or to the investigation, arrest, or detention of any individual, and all Records pertaining to any such communications; 4. All communications relating to immigration enforcement with, to, or from any Vermont, New Hampshire, or Maine businesses or business owners, including but not limited to dairy farms and other agricultural operations, and all records pertaining to any such communications; and 5. All records created, sent, received, referenced, and/or used in fulfilling and/or responding to any of the foregoing parts of this request. This office received your request on September 5, 2017.
In responding to a FOIA request, DHS will search for responsive documents in its control on the date the search began. We began our search for records for item one of your request on September 15, 2017. A search of the Office of Policy (PLCY) Office of Immigration Statistics for documents responsive to your request produced one page of responsive records. In our letter to you dated September 15, 2017, we advised that we transferred items 2 through 5 of your request to ICE for review and direct response to you.

We are granting your request under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, and DHS FOIA regulations at 6 C.F.R. Part 5. After carefully reviewing the responsive document, I determined that it is appropriate for public release. The document is enclosed in its entirety; DHS has claimed no deletions or exemptions.

Provisions of FOIA allow DHS to charge for processing fees, up to $25, unless you seek a waiver of fees. In this instance, because the cost is below the $25 minimum, there is no charge.

If you need any further assistance or would like to discuss any aspect of your request, please contact the analyst below who processed your request and refer to 2017-HQFO-01317. You may send an e-mail to foia@hq.dhs.gov, call 202-343-1743 or toll free 1-866-431-0486, or you may contact our FOIA Public Liaison in the same manner.

Sincerely,
